Sandy Springs must learn from other cities.

Sandy Springs Together is committed to bringing our community together to learn about the challenges of economic growth while balancing the risks of increased traffic and rising housing costs that could make it impossible for our teachers, police officers, nurses, other essential workers and seniors to afford to live here.

Join us November 7 to hear the lessons Atlanta learned after building the Beltline.

Neighbors Shaping Our Future

Sandy Springs is investing in redevelopment by building green space and walking trails and other much needed projects.

How do we add all of these improvements while REDUCING TRAFFIC and making sure our families including young families and seniors will still be able to afford to live here?

We MUST ACT NOW and learn from others who have faced these challenges.
