

Daniel the Dinosaur

Once upon a time where dinosaurs and humans coexisted, they discovered there was a dinosaur who had magical hands. His name was Daniel, anything Daniel made would be magical, so he decided to make cupcakes. The cupcakes Daniel made could make you do anything like flying or even turning invisible. One day while Daniel was at his bakery making his cupcakes, he got a call from a very rich dinosaur. The rich dinosaur wanted to have all the powers in the world, so he ordered every cupcake on Daniel's menu. Daniel was surprised at first, but he got to work right away!

Daniel had to buy a lot of cupcakes mix and a lot of icing because Daniel had over 100 cupcakes on his menu, Daniel had to work, day and night to make all of the cupcakes. All of Daniel's customers wanted to help him but Daniel had to make all the cupcakes himself or else they wouldn't be magical. After weeks of making cupcakes, Daniel was finally ready to deliver the cupcakes to the rich dinosaur.

Daniel didn't have a big enough basket to carry all the cupcakes, so he had to take multiple trips in order to deliver all cupcakes. By the time he delivered 100 cupcakes he was only halfway through. Eventually Daniel got so tired he threw a tantrum in the middle of the city. And as time went by, he realized that he shouldn't be upset since he loved baking cupcakes, and he loved delivering them even more. So, Daniel got back up and did what he loved to do.
